

The Power of One Voice

The Power of One Voice highlights GCSRW's president, Bishop Tracy Smith Malone, during her leadership development to becoming one of the most influential people in The United Methodist Church. While this is just a brief overview of her ministry journey, it brings attention to the important role women played in empowering her.

Tell us about an inspiring woman

We know there is power in our voice. But when we encourage many women and are encouraged by one another, we can achieve more together. Fill out this form to let us know about inspiring women in your church community so we can join you in lifting them up.
