

When you support World Communion Sunday, your gift invests in educational opportunities for United Methodist leaders. Read these testimonies from scholars who received gifts toward their education through the World Communion Sunday offering:

“The World Communion Sunday scholarship has changed my life because it has given me an opportunity to reach the level of life where I can be helpful to my local community and bring real change.”

— YVES MUKANA KINANGWA, DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF CONGO

“The United Methodist Church has nurtured my life in many ways.... The World Communion scholarship is helping me attain my master’s degree in special needs education with a specialty in hearing and speech impairment education. . . . I am grateful.”

— SIBANDA ESINA, ZIMBABWE

“I think that it is important to support World Communion Sunday because everyone deserves to have limitless dreams. I think the future can sometimes be seen as a dead-end for some people, and by supporting World Communion Sunday, it clears the dead-end and helps everyone to see their future as limitless.”

— AYRA MAYA MINOCHA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

PLEASE GIVE GENEROUSLY!

One of six churchwide Special Sundays with offerings of The United Methodist Church, World Communion Sunday calls the church to reach out to all people and model diversity among God's children.

This offering supports a diverse mix of national and international ethnic young adults to make a global impact for Christ. Half of the offering benefits World Communion scholarships for graduate students from the U.S. and other countries. The remainder assists Ethnic Scholarships for U.S. and international undergraduates studying in the U.S. and Ethnic In-Service Training. These funds are administered by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry and Global Ministries.

When you give generously on World Communion Sunday, you equip talented, qualified students from around the globe to become the world changers God created them to be. Please give online: UMC.org/SSGive or mail checks to World Communion Sunday, GCFA, P.O. Box 340029, Nashville, TN 37203. Checks can also be directed to your local church and write "WCS" in the memo line.
