

UMCOR SUNDAY

COMPELLED BY CHRIST TO OFFER SIGNS
OF EXTRAVAGANT GRACE AND HOPE
THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.

“I thank God for the resilience of people who come together to pick up the pieces and hope in the Lord to bring restoration to community and church life.”

— The Rev. Leslie Casupanan-Dela Cruz, administrative pastor, Camachile United Methodist Church, Philippines
following a devastating earthquake in April 2019.

“We would not be able to begin to address our people’s need if it weren’t for the United Methodist community, the United Methodist Committee on Relief, specifically, who sent help in our greatest hour of need.”

— Chase Iron Eyes, public relations liaison, Oglala Sioux Tribe, South Dakota, when a winter storm and flooding impacted the Pine Ridge Reservation in March 2019.

“We can be captivated by the pictures of destruction, but every picture represents someone’s life, lost memories, lost home and, sometimes, loss of employment. It is often the small acts, such as listening as stories are shared that offer hope.”

— Rev. Dee Stickley Miner, West Ohio Conference disaster response coordinator after 10 tornadoes and violent spring storms swept through the Dayton area in 2019.

UMCOR SUNDAY

COMPELLED BY CHRIST TO OFFER SIGNS
OF EXTRAVAGANT GRACE AND HOPE
THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.

One of six churchwide special offerings, UMCOR Sunday (formerly called “One Great Hour of Sharing”) supports the work of the United Methodist Committee on Relief, the denomination’s humanitarian relief and development organization.

The special offering underwrites UMCOR’s “costs of doing business.” While many non profit agencies charge 35 cents for each dollar raised, your support through this offering ensures 100% of gifts to UMCOR help those who need it most.

The United Methodist Church can respond quickly through UMCOR with funds to address immediate needs and grants to support long-term recovery. This is only possible with your support.

UMCOR focusses on disaster preparedness, recovery and response as well as migration and sustainable development in both the United States and globally. Your gift to UMCOR is an example of extravagant grace. Please give generously, with a check to your church and “UMCOR Sunday” written in the memo line. Thank you!

Open Hearts. Open Minds. Open Doors.
