What event, occurring decades ago, is still impacting the nation of Cambodia?
At least 1.7 million people, a fifth of Cambodia’s population, were killed during the Khmer Rouge regime. The country has slowly emerged with hope from its scarred past.

Through the efforts of several ministries including the Cambodia Methodist Bible School, CHAD, Street Children’s Ministry, and the efforts of UMC missionaries, livelihood improvement and education is seen throughout the most vulnerable populations.