The United Methodist Church's special giving structure ensures your generosity blesses as many people as possible in sustainable and strategic ways.

GIVE THROUGH YOUR CHURCH:
Apportionment giving is collected through your local church. For more details on supporting the Interdenominational Cooperation Fund, visit UMC.org/ICF

The people of The United Methodist Church*
WHY DO WE GIVE TO APPOINTED FUNDS?
Apportionments form the framework for our individual and congregational participation in mission and ministry beyond the local church. When you donate to your local church, a portion of what you give supports apportionments. Your gift will help change lives both locally and around the world. For stories about how you make a difference, visit UMC.org/ICF

HOW DO YOUR GIFTS SUPPORT THE INTERDENOMINATIONAL COOPERATION FUND?
United Methodists acknowledge that we are but a small part of the worldwide Christian church and our unity with other Christian communions is furthered when we witness to a common Christian faith. Our relationships with other Christian denominations enable us to witness together while respecting our unique traditions and distinctions and to engage in ministries that foster justice, mercy and peace in God’s world. Your gifts to your church make this ministry of Christian unity possible. Gifts to the Interdenominational Cooperation Fund are essential to continuing Christian unity in the United States and around the world.

WHY DO WE GIVE TO APPOINTED FUNDS?
Apportionments form the framework for our individual and congregational participation in mission and ministry beyond the local church. When you donate to your local church, a portion of what you give supports apportionments. Your gift will help change lives both locally and around the world. For stories about how you make a difference, visit UMC.org/ICF

HOW DO YOUR GIFTS SUPPORT THE INTERDENOMINATIONAL COOPERATION FUND?
United Methodists acknowledge that we are but a small part of the worldwide Christian church and our unity with other Christian communions is furthered when we witness to a common Christian faith. Our relationships with other Christian denominations enable us to witness together while respecting our unique traditions and distinctions and to engage in ministries that foster justice, mercy and peace in God’s world. Your gifts to your church make this ministry of Christian unity possible. Gifts to the Interdenominational Cooperation Fund are essential to continuing Christian unity in the United States and around the world.