

Follow the maze that leads from Martin Luther King Jr.'s words to the dream he shared that all of God's children will hold hands and feel a sense of freedom in community.

"When we let [freedom] ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children ... will be able to join hands and sing: Free at last. Free at last. Thank God almighty, we are free at last."

HUMAN RELATIONS DAY Children's Bulletin

"There are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone."

—1 Corinthians 12:4-6, NRSV

Draw a picture inside the gift box that shows how you use your gifts to make the world a better place.

Spiritual Gifts Inventory

God has given you special gifts to help other people. Maybe you have a kind heart. Perhaps you have musical or athletic gifts. Or maybe you do well in school and your wisdom is a gift that helps solve problems. What other gifts do you have? Sometimes it can be hard to think of something on your own. Look at this list and think about some of the things you are good at and how you might share these gifts in church or at school.

Circle one word in each section and then count them at the bottom to see which of your gifts is strongest.
