The change—from @gbhem.org to @africau.org—is part of an ongoing effort to operate more efficiently and with enhanced brand visibility. It affirms Africa University’s continuing evolution from a fledgling ministry into what is now, at its 30-year milestone, “the cornerstone institution” for United Methodist Church-related leadership development and missional engagement on the continent of Africa. Africa University is a beloved ministry in the life of The United Methodist Church and looks forward to continuing the journey together in ministry.
