GCSRW Monitoring Report, April 30

Our morning began with beautiful images of our great diversity! It was evident in the music, the worship leaders, and especially in the persons who were commissioned as Home Missioners and Deaconesses. We further witnessed this diversity as we received the report for United Women in Faith.

Bishop Delores Williamston called the morning plenary session to order by engaging us in prayer. We are grateful for the incredibly capable women who chair the several committees of the General Conference and who report daily to aid the work that awaits the delegates!

Much of the first section of the morning session was used for nominations across important areas of our work and connection. As we moved further into the morning and early afternoon, Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball presided for the day's first calendar item. Bishop Mande Muyombo presided for the later afternoon session, which included receiving the report of Africa University (AU). Throughout the AU report, we heard about the difference that Africa University is making for the empowerment of women in Africa. This was made evident by Rev. Dr. Betty Kazadi's presentation.

A great deal of our day was utilized debating calendar items. However, while in past days we have seen a fair balance of speakers according to gender, this did not hold true today. Today's deliberations from the floor were dominated by male speakers. We saw that 77% of the speakers identified as male, 22% identified as female and 1% identified as nonbinary. We can do better than this!

During the week ahead of us, we should ask ourselves, "If I choose to speak, will I be preventing another voice from having opportunity?" Another question for self-reflection might be, "How many times I have entered the pool to speak. Do my multiple requests prevent someone else from speaking for the very first time?"

Let's commit together to ensure that all delegates have the space to contribute to our collective work!

GCORR Equity Monitoring Report No. 7

In an official monitoring report last week, we were reminded to "honor each other's personal space" by "respecting appropriate boundaries." As we continue in full plenary sessions, it is important to recall this expectation. A specific example of the need for respecting boundaries has been recognized:

Among our observers is an individual who is accompanied by a service dog. It is important to remember that this service dog is at work when present in the Convention Center. We should never approach, pet, or talk to the dog without the clear permission of the person they accompany. In the words of someone with a service dog, "Please look at and talk to the human, not the service dog." That approach will preserve dignity and honor boundaries.

Bishop Karen Oliveto of the Mountain Sky Conference delivered a sermon reminding us of the importance of being church with and loving those on the margins. Incorporating John Wesley's admonition not to overlook the lost, lonely, and least, Bishop Oliveto challenged us to consider that if we are a denomination defined by those who are left out, "Has Jesus Christ ever been let in?"

The debates early in the day were a celebration as African Conference delegates spoke most often. However, it was mostly white delegates from the United States requesting to end debate. The debates lasted around three hours and have relevance for the equity questions about the impact of legislation:

- Who will benefit and in what ways?
- Who will gain or lose power (authority, access)?

There is growth across multiple conferences and countries in Africa. Delegates and the UMC are grappling with the equity between needs and resources. Yet, why was this body discussing the boundaries and arrangements of the Episcopal Areas in Central Conferences? Some Central Conference delegates may not have had advance information about those deliberations. Information is power, often influencing and impacting decision-making processes and outcomes. Who holds that information and who shares it matters greatly.

- Who will gain or lose resources (budgets, staff, ministries, buildings)?

They also invite us to recall Jesus' admonition in the Gospel, "I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat..." When one delegate challenged the delegates to consider how the historic and contemporary plundering of Africa by colonializing powers has created some of the financial imbalances, it also pushed The United Methodist Church to ponder Jesus' further teaching in that passage:

"Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you...?' 'The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'" Matthew 25:34-40. NIV

In the midst of holy conferencing Tuesday afternoon, we received word from Bishop Connie Shelton of a mass shooting here in Charlotte. Immediately, many of us from the United States recognized this announcement as one that we hear far too often. It will be followed by images of police responses, blocked streets, chaos, and the distress of families, friends, and neighbors standing by in a chasm of unknowns. As we continue our prayers for the people directly impacted by this tragedy, may we remember, in the words of Letty M. Russell, that among the things in our families, churches, and communities "most in need of justice and healing, there is no separation between things spiritual and material, religious and political, sacred and secular in our lives. God is in all of it, calling us to make connections that mend our lives, churches, and world."

Judicial Council Decision No. 1497

JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

DECISION NO. 1497

[Docket No. 0524-3]

IN RE: Petition for Declaratory Decision from the General Conference 2024 Regarding the Meaning, Application, and Effect of ¶ 511.1 of The 2016 Book of Discipline Concerning Youth Representation on the Commission on the General Conference.

Digest

If there is no youth representation among the members of the Commission on the General Conference, the General Conference is required to identify, nominate, and elect at least one youth who meets the qualifications set forth in ¶ 511.

Statement of Facts

On April 29, 2024, during the morning plenary session, a delegate from the Upper New York Annual Conference rose to make the following motion:

I rise to request a declaratory decision from the Judicial Council as to the effect and meaning of ¶ 511.1. My question is in two parts: 1) In light of the fact that ¶ 511.1b states that the membership of the Commission on the General Conference shall come from the elected delegates of the General Conference but ¶ 511.1a states that there shall be one youth serving on the Commission on the General Conference, how can these two sections be reconciled when no youth is elected as a delegate to the General Conference? And 2) In light of ¶ 511.1a, is it legal to elect a Commission on the General Conference membership that contains no youth representation?

The motion was passed by 560 YES to 166 NO.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction pursuant to ¶ 2610 of The 2016 Book of Discipline. [hereinafter The Discipline]

Analysis and Rationale

The pertinent provision in The Discipline states regarding the composition of the Commission on the General Conference [hereinafter Commission]:

¶ 511. Commission on the General Conference—There shall be a Commission on the General Conference, hereinafter called the commission.

1. Membership—a) The voting members of the commission shall be elected quadrennially by the General Conference and shall consist of twenty-five members as follows: one person from each US jurisdiction, one person from each of the seven central conferences, one young adult, one youth, the chairperson of the host committee, and ten additional members. The additional members shall be allocated to reflect the proportionate membership based upon combined clergy and lay membership of the church.

b) Members shall be nominated from the elected delegates to the General Conference by the Council of Bishops prior to General Conference and elected by the General Conference for a term of eight years. Additional persons who meet the qualifications may be nominated from the floor of General Conference. The commission shall reflect a balance of clergymen and clergywomen, laywomen and laymen, and the diverse character of The United Methodist Church. Approximately half of the commission shall be elected by the General Conference each quadrennium.

[emphases added]

The Discipline requires youth representation on the Commission under ¶ 511.1a. The General Conference is required to find, nominate, and elect at least one youth to the Commission.

Decision

If there is no youth representation among the members of the Commission on the General Conference, the General Conference is required to identify, nominate, and elect at least one youth who meets the qualifications set forth in ¶ 511.

Rule 33. Consent Calendar

Calendar items are automatically placed on a consent calendar when the item has ten (10) or fewer votes against the prevailing position of the legislative committee. Rule 33(3)(a)

There are three different consent calendars:

- Consent Calendar A contains calendar items involving disciplinary changes for which the legislative committee recommendation is to adopt
- Consent Calendar B contains calendar items involving non-disciplinary changes for which the legislative committee recommendation is to adopt
- Consent Calendar C contains any calendar item for which the committee recommendation is to refer.

Calendar items with a minority report cannot be placed on any consent calendar. Items with financial implications or items dealing with the Constitution cannot be placed on Consent Calendars A or B, but they can be placed on Consent Calendar C because there would be no financial or constitutional implications.

Rule 33(7) Removing a Calendar Item from the Consent Calendar

Any twenty (20) delegates may have a Consent Calendar item removed by submitting a Consent Calendar Removal Request Form by 3:00 p.m. of the day the calendar item first appears in the Daily Christian Advocate. The form can be picked up from room 103 and returned to room 103. Reserve delegates may sign requests to remove items from the consent calendar only while seated as voting delegates.
