To support each Special Sunday, simply print the PDF template. This is designed to fit 8.5x11 size paper. When printing, select print fit to page, print on both sides, flip on long edge and portrait orientation. See below for a visual. For a sturdy insert, print on card stock.

Once printed, trim out each insert and place them in each bulletin or in high traffic areas. SPECIAL
SUNDAY

PEACE WITH JUSTICE SUNDAY

Peace with Justice is a faithful expression of shalom in the Bible. It calls the church to strengthen its capacity to advocate publicly in communities and nations throughout the world. (2020/2024 Book of Resolutions, #5207)

The United Methodist Church uses this day to speak out for peace and justice. Our Social Principles call us to love our enemies, seek justice, and serve as peacemakers in resolving conflict. Administered by the General Board of Church and Society, Peace with Justice contributions support programs that witness to God's demands for a faithful, just, disarmed, and secure world.

Fifty percent of the funds raised on Peace with Justice Sunday stay within the United Methodist Annual Conference to enhance and support local social justice ministries. To sustain and build these efforts, the Book of Discipline calls upon each Annual Conference to have a Peace With Justice Coordinator. The Conference Coordinator focuses on providing educational resources, fostering relationships, and mobilizing networks for social advocacy and action.

Fifty percent of the donations collected support national and international peacemaking ministries and grants. Our mission is to promote shalom for all of God's people. Two distinct grants are offered to United Methodist congregations and organizations that focus on Ethnic/Minority Local Church ministries and programs related to Peace with Justice ministries.

SPECIAL

PEACE WITH JUSTICE SUNDAY

One of the denomination's six special offerings, Peace with Justice Sunday encourages United Methodists to participate in transforming the world and challenging injustice by calling on our leaders and elected officials to prioritize policies that support communities and reflect God's economy of abundance and grace. It is our duty to share the call for justice in the public square and invite others to join the movement for justice. "Peace with justice" is the only way to address root causes of suffering.

Throughout the Bible, God calls on us to challenge unjust leaders and serve as advocates for justice and peace. We must heed God's call for us to do justice (Micah 6:8), to repair brokenness in our communities (Isaiah 58, 61), and to seek peace and pursue it (Psalm 34:14). At a time when it may feel like we have lost so much, embracing God's love for us can shift our perspective to recognize and share abundant grace.

United Methodist Special Sunday offerings celebrate vibrant ministries while investing in servant leadership, community building and ministries of peace with justice. Concentrating our resources to support these important ministries equips us to work together, empowered by God's love.
