THE UNITED METHODIST Special Sundays Planning Calendar

Open Hearts. Open Minds. Open Doors.

The people of The United Methodist Church®

PROMOTION MADE SIMPLE

The United Methodist Church sets aside several Special Sundays each year to highlight ministries that embody our shared mission and witness as a denomination.

Giving is more than a financial act — it's a bold expression of faith. It fuels ministry across borders, languages, and cultures, becoming a powerful witness to God's expansive love. Through generosity, more people are able to use their gifts, live out their calling, and take part in something greater through The United Methodist connection.

As faithful United Methodists, we have the opportunity to help our communities understand the purpose of each Special Sunday — and how their support makes a real and lasting impact through these shared ministries.

This planning calendar is designed to support that work. Inside, you'll find key tasks, timely reminders, promotional tips, and helpful links to keep your efforts organized and your ministry inspired all year long.

We're praying with you as you inspire others to learn, serve, and give with joy.

EQUIPPING REAL CHANGE

The Episcopal Fund, sustained by the faithful giving of United Methodists, equips bishops to lead, mentor, and strengthen congregations. Without this support, leaders like Bishop David Wilson, the first Native American bishop in The UMC, could not achieve the historic milestones that bring vision, perspective, and transformative leadership to the denomination. SUNDAY

September, known as Harvest Month, is a time to gather and share crops. The United Methodist Church began in humble rural settings. Rural Life Sunday honors leaders in these communities who care for God's creation and live out their trust in Divine Providence. This special offering supports outreach, small churches, rural pastors and families, and promotes sustainable living within the conference. Celebrate by uplifting your conference ministries and explore why we celebrate this day.

UNITED IN IMPACT

At every level of The United Methodist Church, we are connected—and that connection is our strength. The United in Impact campaign is more than a message; it's a movement to raise awareness, celebrate generosity, and share the stories that show how connectional giving makes a difference. It's about recognizing that your church's faithfulness doesn't just sustain ministry—it helps mission flourish. Explore the campaign.

LAITY SUNDAY

OCT 18

LAITY SUNDAY

Laity Sunday, observed on the third Sunday in October, honors the ministry and witness of laypersons in the church. In the early days, laypeople sustained churches between visits from circuit riders. Today, they serve on the front lines—in workplaces, homes, and communities—living out their faith daily. Explore why we celebrate.
